

2012 FALL LECTURE SERIES

Washington University • College of Arts & Sciences • Department of Art History & Archaeology

Tuesday, September 4th: Building the Cultural Heritage Engineer:

Interdisciplinary Training and Collaborative Research Centers in Concept and Practice

SAMANTHA STOUT, UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA SAN DIEGO

Co-sponsored by the College of Arts & Sciences and Sam Fox School of Design and Visual Arts

5pm - Kemper 103

Tuesday, September 18th: Art, Blue-State Style

TYLER GREEN, ART JOURNALIST

Graduate Student Lecture Series

5pm - Kemper 103

Tuesday, October 2nd: Panel: On Collecting in St. Louis

ORGANIZED BY DR. ELIZABETH CHILDS, WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY AND
DR. KRISTINA VAN DYKE, DIRECTOR, PULITZER FOUNDATION FOR THE ARTS

Four private collectors and curators from the St. Louis area will speak about local art collecting practices since World War II, with a focus on modern art, photography, Old Masters, and Oceanic art. Brent Benjamin, Director of the Saint Louis Art Museum, will respond to the panelists' comments.

7pm - Pulitzer Foundation for the Arts

Thursday, October 4th: Soga Shohaku, The Wanderer of Heian

DR. YUKIO LIPPIT, HARVARD UNIVERSITY

15th Annual Nelson Wu Memorial Lecture

6pm Lecture, Reception to Follow - Steinberg Auditorium

Saturday, October 20th: Barocci and His World

DR. THEODORE K. RABB, PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

Co-presented by the Saint Louis Art Museum in conjunction with the exhibition "Federico Barocci: Renaissance Master," on view October 21, 2012 through January 20, 2013

11am Lecture, Reception to Follow - Steinberg Auditorium

Thursday, November 8th: African Modernism: Beyond Alternative Modernities Discourse

DR. SALAH HASSAN, CORNELL UNIVERSITY, DISTINGUISHED VISITING SCHOLAR IN THE DEPARTMENT OF ART HISTORY & ARCHAEOLOGY

Co-sponsored by the Office of the Provost

5:45 pm Reception, 6:30pm Lecture - Steinberg Auditorium